Dear Sir:

I do not know who to go to, to get straight honest answers but to you.

Will you tell me, about the book called - ~~None Dare Call It~~ Treason)? Is it a books of facts? According to the enclosed clippings - its all wrong.

The reason I ask is because I was going to get several and give it my friends.

While reading it, I had so many different emotions - shock;
fear; distrust; doubts and disgust.

Now I am wondering what is right to do - how can I be of use to my fellowman. Wondering if its worth while, when the leaders don't care or want to know the truth? It makes one feel, well whats the use.

There is no one - Only God can help. If we turn to Him. As in Jonah Chapter 3. When a Nation turns to God that nation becomes Victorious.
And when God is forsaken- that nation perishes. And it is about time America recognizes that God stell rules and that we should call upon Him and obey. Only there will America become great again.

Right Wing Assailed

GIs' Parcels Stuffed With Propaganda

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Dec 1 (UPI).

COPIES of the right-wing tract "None Dare Call It Treason" have been stuffed into Christmas packages for servicemen in Vietnam, Sen. Howard Cannon (D., Nev.) charged Wednesday.

The Senator's office here issued a statement in which Cannon denounced the discovery of the "ultra-right-wing material" in packages being shipped free of charge to servicemen in the war zone.

Marion Glancontieri, a local Democratic Party leader, said she was informed by a worker wrapping the packages that they included the book—millions of copies of which have been distributed by right-wing groups.

A warehouse worker refused to continue wrapping the packages which included the book, Mrs. Glancontieri said.

THE packages were being shipped in the "Loot From Las Vegas" program, promoted by a local radio station. The Government has granted commercial airlines permission to fly such packages free of charge to the West Coast from where they are shipped overseas by military planes.

Cannon's office said, "The very noble purpose of the effort to send the boxes to Vietnam should not be used as a vehicle for including ultra-right-wing material."

Dear Mr. Hoover:

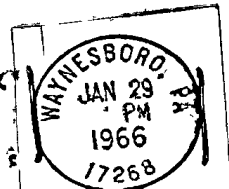

For years I have had a very high regard for you and your work.
Will you please write me and give me the correct facts.

I hear and read so much that I am at a point that I do not know what to believe. Recently I read the book "None dare call it Treason" by John Storum. In the back of the book he says that The John Birch Society is doing a fine work in so many words. Other books condemn the work of the John Birch Society as left wingers. I do not know which to believe.

The purpose in writing you is to find out if the John Birch Society is doing a good work in the eyes of your department? Also any additional comments you may care to make will be greatly appreciated by the undersigned. Your comments about the above referred to book will also be greatly appreciated by me.

Thanking you in advance and wishing you many, many more years of being the great hand behind our great country.

Dear Mr. President:

John A. Stormer, author of "None Dare Call It Treason", was in Orlando on January 29, 1966. He was sponsored by the Citadel of Faith and Freedom.

In my opinion, this man is guilty of treason and is a traitor to our country.

Although he stated he had just returned from Viet Nam and was to talk about Viet Nam, his talk consisted of reading newspaper items and traitorous criticism of our government.

He talks in half-truths and distorts facts.

He actually preaches disloyalty, disunity, and disbelief in you and our government.

John A. Stormer reminds me of Hitler in his early years. Stormer preaches even more hatred. He is a dangerous enemy to this country.

Actually the extreme right wing in the U.S.A. is our main source of national headaches and problems.

Dear Mr. Hoover :

Recently in my hometown of [Redacted] there has been an attempt by a certain group to distribute the highly criticised book None Dare Call It Treason to every high school student in the county. As a result, there has been quite a bit of controversy over the validity and truthfullness of the book. Personally however, I am very much in favor of the book and I am happy to see these things brought out into the open. But then, my words of commendation for the book are not enough to sustain its being truthfull. This is where I need your help.

I would like very much for you to write and give me your opinion of the book and whether or not you think that it is good for all high school students to read it. As a man who I respect and admire I feel that you are more than qualified to give a bonafied answer to the validity of the book.

I will look forward to getting your reply. Thanks so much for your time and efforts. Keep up the good work in this fight against communism.

Our country must be pretty good to let such things as Gus Hall and his bunch run around loose in our Great Society. After reading Masters of Deceit, None Dare Call It Treason, and The New Left, it makes me a little sick to read such things as disarmament by President Johnson and gun bills by Senator Dodd.

I attend a small college in Northern Idaho (NJC) and try to keep up with the news and events of our country. Your article on The New Left really hit the spot, and I would like to see more of that kind of press. I may be all wrong and I would certainly appreciate any straightening out you could do for me. Dear Sir;

I am a student at Kansas State University and have been approached with statements about various organizations. Statements that you have made are pointed out many times to make a point and I have reason to believe that the context has frequently been changed. I would like to know the official FBI position on a couple of points. First of all does the National Council of Churches have a clearance with the FBI as being a non - communist affiliated organization? What about the John Birch Society? Does a good citizen have any patriotic reasons to stay out of either of these organizations? Do either of these organizations use subversive methods? I am interested not only in the FBI position but in your personal position.

Do you have a list of organizations that have been shown to be communist affiliated and of those that use subversive methods? The reason for my sudden inquiry is that I have read the book, None Dare Call It Treason by John A. Stormer. Although I appreciate your time, I would be grateful for your sincere and prompt answer. Thank you very much.

Dear Sir,

~~X~~ I have recently read a book by John A Stormer entitled "None Dare Call It Treason." The facts that he has brought out about communism kind of shook me up.

America has been good to me and I have been wondering if I have really done anything for America in return. I don't really think I have so I have a proposal to make to your organization for your consideration.

I am a merchant seaman without too much of an education and years of age and believe that I could get into the Communist Party U. S. A. without too much difficulty (by the way I am not and have never been a communist) perhaps if I did become a member I might be of value to your organization as your Agent. I am a family man with a wife and six children and I fully understand the danger of my proposal but will undertake it regardless if you feel that I could be of value to America.

I have met Arnold Johnson the Public Relations man for the Communist Party U. S. A. and he has sent communist material to my home last Spring.

I was pretty disgusted with the officials of my Maritime Union and asked him for support to try and get new officials in office in my Union.

I got no encouragement from him on that score and after reading Mr. Stormer's book I can see why as actually they are hand and glove. I see the whole communist conspiracy in an entirely different light thanks to Mr. Stormer. Communism is the worst thing that could happen to a working man.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I have just completed reading "None Dare Call It Treason," authored in 1964 by Mr. John A. Stormer and published by Liberty Bell Press, P. O. Box 32, Florissant, Missouri. I am inquiring to try and find out if this is a factual documentary of the communistic threat as written and compiled by Mr. Stormer. I do not have the facilities to document Mr. Stormer's book but am very interested in substantiating what he writes.

If what Mr. Stormer writes is the "truth," then what can be done by an individual citizen?

I would appreciate any help, assistance or information you could give me.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you (and those who have served with you) for your many years of service in the interest and safety of our Country. Most Americans have felt secure as long as you have headed the FBI and like myself will be uneasy when you retire.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Two years ago I read a book entitled "None Dare Call It Treason" by John A. Stormer, which pointed out many cases of subversion in America. In this book I found a wealth of knowledge carefully compiled for the purpose of waking up apathetic Americans. In distributing this book, I have found to my chagrin that many people ask "How do you know the author was telling the truth?". It is impossible to carry all the material along with me every place I go that would document what the author reveals. Yours is a well known and highly respected name and I would very much appreciate any comment you would care to make in regard to the book or the author.

It will indeed be a sad day for America when you retire, Mr. Hoover. All conservatives watch apprehensively to see who your successor will be. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for all the things you've done for our wonderful America. God bless you.

Yours for God and Country,

Dear Mr. Hoover;

I am writing in regard to the book, "None Dare Call it Treason." Mr. Stormer has referred to you many times in supporting his conservative position. Perhaps as all Americans, I have been deceived by the likeable and lusty appearance of the late John Kennedy, or the great war general Mr. Eisenhower.

Are Americans being drawn into a plan in which communism appears to have the same goals as America. Is there at the present a real threat within our own federal government. In reference to Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Eisenhower with all due respect, I ask, did their administrations seemingly act in an apathetic manner concerning Communism?

Mr. Hoover I am very interested in knowing if Mr. Stormer's book is a fair view of our nation's attitude toward Communism. Thank you Sir, your reply will be most appreciated

Dear

Your letter of September 15th has been received. A broad knowledge of the objectives and operations of the communist movement is essential if Americans are to effectively resist its eroding influence.

Perhaps you will want to read my books, "Masters of Deceit" and "A Study of Communism." These were written to help readers gain an insight into the true nature of communist activities, both in this country and abroad. Copies may be available at your school or local library.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am a [] year old student at the University of Texas. I consider myself a classical conservative; not a radical. I have just finished reading John Stormer's documented exposé of communism, "None Dare Call It Treason". What bothers me about this book is, despite its obvious plays on emotion, and its not-so-subtle connotation slants, there occur statements of fact which are disturbing. Perhaps even more disturbing is the fact that the book is four years old; recounts incidents ten and fifteen years old, and yet nothing seems to be done about the rising tide of communism.

I feel that of all the people in the United States you are the most qualified to evaluate the facts, not necessarily the style in which they are presented, of Mr. Stormer's book. I want to know what you think.

My fear of communism is not simply a reaction to this book, which is obviously right-wing material and designed for this effect. I was raised with the typical American dislike for communism. This dislike was reinforced when, as a teenager,

I read your "Masters of Deceit". I saw that they were not only to be disliked but also feared. I have followed your advice and educated myself to their tactics, which, alarmingly I see in the best organized student group here, the SDS.

The scene here at the University of Texas, probably not unlike that on other campuses across the nation, is shocking. I know three other students who feel as I do about communism. I hear students preaching Marxist theory in the student union. My government professor says the appeal of communism in the United States is almost zero and not to worry about it. A communist [redacted] spoke in Austin last night to a large audience. Who supports these men? Why won't someone sponsor men like yourself to come here and speak against communism? Is it because there is no one to sponsor them or that they fear they won't be listened to when they get here?

I have dared liberals to read this book, and give me an opinion of just the facts. Such an outspoken critic of communism as yourself should not hesitate. Is the communist element in our government as powerful as Mr. Stormer shows it to be?

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Recently while at the library I borrowed the book, In Every War But One. Being a former member of the Marine Corps I thought it would be a good book. As it turned out, it was a thought provoking and well written book.

Deciding to read further on the subject of communism I purchased the paperback edition of None Dare Call It Treason by John A. Stormer. This was, to say the least, a very disturbing book.

Although I am too young to remember many of the debates, treaties, etc in the book I have first hand knowlege of some of the results of these by having served two tours in Viet-Nam in 1964 and 65.

What I am writing for is to see if you have read None Dare Call It Treason and if so, what is your opinion of it?

Yours truly

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director

Dear Sir:

The book entitled, None Dare Call It Treason by John Stormer, seems to sow a lot of seeds of mistrust concerning some great Americans. I have noticed where he has told half truths and by not giving all of the information it is implied that one should mistrust the people involved. For example: Mr. Stormer mentions that the word "virgin" is excluded from Isa. 7:14 in the RSV translation. He does not go on to say, however, that the word "virgin" is mentioned twice in Luke 1:27. Therefore, many laymen have concluded that the Virgin Birth has been excluded from the RSV translation. This kind of conclusion is wrong. It is made because information was withheld. Therefore, my question to you is as follows: Is Mr. Stormer's book misleading concerning some of our important government officials and has he quoted out of context whereby the wrong conclusions are made by those who read after him?

Thanking you for the work you have done for our nation over the years and hoping you will have time to consider this letter, I am,

Mr. Hoover

I don't know who else to write this to so I had to address it to you. I apologize for taking your time.

I am a little disturbed over signs of discrediting our past historical people as for example Geo. Washington. There is a pocket book entitled "Is the U.S. ready for self-government," with a picture of G. W. on the cover with his eyes drawn in crossed toward his nose. This is bad and has the effect of making him look like a jerk.

What's worse, the book is endorsed by the New York Times, the Detroit Free Press, and John Barkham of the Saturday Review Syndicate.

Why would such responsible public media organizations participate in this type of deframement? I would expect this from the communist party.

This book is on sale in a drugstore chain here in Chicago, Stineways, I believe, I am not positive.

In searching around to acquire understanding of events taking place today I ran across a book called "None Dare Call It Treason, by John Stormer. I read the book and was even more disturbed. I have been told, however, that this book is a subversive, leftist, book by my boss at work yet, although I can't see it. I don't think it is.

Dear Sir:

I am just an ordinary citizen, perhaps a little more stupid and naive than some. Maybe you, personally, won't ever get this letter, (unless I send it registered) If I do send it by registered mail, it will be sent from some other Post Office, because my small town Post Office employees will think I have "cracked up" if they notice me writing to you.

My problem is that I have to have things "laid on the line" truthfully and honestly. That is the way I operate and I can't understand or uncover the deceitful mind.

I have read a book in which I am unable to discover any ulterior motive but, knowing myself to be naive, I decided you were the only one I could trust to set me straight.

This book is documented excerpts from Senate and House Investigating Committees and quotes from your books and speeches, etc. I read your "Masters of Deceit " It was marvelous. I believed in that It was a help to my thinking. Now, please help me personally,

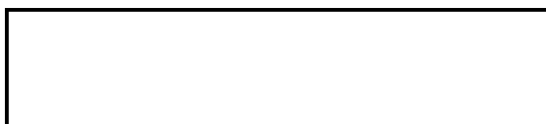

• Of course, I don't want you to "endorse" the book, or say anything that could be used against you. Just answer me with one word - Yes or No.

The Book is "None Dare Call it Treason" by John Stormer

The question is:

Am I doing my country a "disservice" to hand out this book to my friends?

I have recently finished reading your "Masters of Deceit" and found it to be extremely enlightening and very well written.

However, I also have read John A. Stormers "None Dare Call it Treason", and found it to be rather frightening. I wonder if you have any information on the author that might possibly help me in the evaluation of his book?

Mr. Hoover,

I have just finished None Darex Call It Treason by John A. Stormer. In it, he attacks, suggests and charges many things. Are you familiar with the author, his works or his beliefs? If so, what is your opinion?

Sir, I know that your duties are time consuming, in fact, you may never get to read this or answer it. However, I must rely on some one with the knowledge and experience to judge for assistance in my efforts to find the whole truth of the situation. There is no one better qualified in this field than you. I am so far removed from most of the happenings in the book that there is no manner in which I alone could judge realistically.

Mr. Hoover, what do you think?

JOHN STORMER

Stormer is well known to the Bureau as the author of "None Dare Call It Treason," a highly controversial book which made unfounded accusations regarding communist infiltration in the U. S.

"THE DEATH OF A NATION"

Stormer's current book follows the lines of "None Dare Call It Treason." He begins by quoting Mr. Hoover's statement, "We are at war with communism..." and uses it to imply that communism is at work behind all of America's troubles, including crime, riots, immorality, etc.

He also implies that there are communists in government today and goes on to link U. S. leaders' rejection of God with their inability to cope with communism. He includes criticism of our "no-win" war policy in Vietnam.

A chapter is devoted to immorality and crime among youth which Stormer attributes in part to a communist conspiracy and the failure of parents, churches and educators to properly direct youth.

Another chapter is devoted to churches in America, and Stormer is critical of church groups which are a part of the ecumenical movement and National Council of Churches.

Stormer includes a chapter on what it would be like if communism took over America and warns that this will happen if we do not turn back to God. His entire book is filled with quotations from scripture predicting doom for our Nation if we do not have a spiritual awakening.

Over all, the book tends to exaggerate communist influence, and Stormer is quick to take comments of individuals out of context to promote his own viewpoint.

MENTIONS OF DIRECTOR

As indicated above, Stormer quotes from the Director to point up the communist menace. Brief excerpts from Appropriations Testimonies and articles are used to emphasize communist agitation tactics in connection with riots and youth. He indicates that Governor Kerner's fact-finding commission on riots misused Mr. Hoover's name to back the commission's view that communists were not behind the riots. Stormer also includes brief comments of Mr. Hoover on youthful crime and pornography to point up their prevalence in our nation.

Dear Mr Hoover;

I would like to inquire about a book that is floating around in this area. Called "None Dare Call it Treason" written by John A. Stormer.

After reading this book I just have to know whether this book which, includes much fact, though lables Communism & subversion accurately is not in it's self a subversive book. Meant to creat distrust in our Government.

The book labled the Council on foreign Relations as being a strong key in pusing communism in our country, whether innocently or otherwise.

It is noticeable in our country our children are becoming less religious & have less patritism than when I grew up. Though I try to instill both in their minds. Some where along the line they are getting reverse ideas.

If this book is completely accurate. we are in serious trouble but somewhere along the line I feel this book is subersive I want to believe it is any way. If we have this in Washington what can we the people do about it?

Would appreciate your answer greatly.

Dear Sir:

Because quotations credited to you are reported 16 times by Mr. John Stormer in his new book, Death of a Nation, as an affirmation or justification of his position and because your name is being used in pushing the sale of the book, I would like very much to have your comments on the following:

1. Do you feel you have been unfairly quoted out of context in an attempt to establish his premise in both of his books, "None Dare Call it Treason", as well as, "Death of a Nation"?
2. Is this primarily a political book, or a book brought out to coincide with the 1968 election?
3. Are you in agreement, as he infers, that our form of government is in danger of being overthrown by a treasonable group of men in high places in our government in the exercise of their positions and policies?

Your answers will help me immeasurable in evaluating Mr. Stormer's books and the controversy surrounding them.

Dear Mr Hoover,

I am writting this letter in regards to two books I have read in the past weeks.

- (1) Death of a Nation
- (2) None Dare call It Treason.

In both of these books your name was mentioned several times. I am more than just interested in the truth.

In the near future I hope to speak at a Bible class. I have already had discussions with small groups in our church and where I work. I have told people about the facts that John A. Stormer has brought out in these two books. Which includes several statements made by You.

I have also read your book "Master of Deceit"

In some of these discussions people refuse to believe that the communists have this strong a grip on the American people. They also refuse to believe the communists are in our Churches.

I think some of our trouble is, the people are wrapped up in the many luxuries this country has, and therefore they have turned away from God.

This generation has never seen blood shed as war on our home land. They over estimate the power of this country and underestimate the communists. Therefore they feel secure.

Mr. Hoover, If you could take a little time to send me some statements or facts with your signature I feel it would help me to help others. Is what was said in those book true?

- (1) Death of a Nation
- (2) None Dare Call it Treason

I realize you are a busy, and important man. but I would be thankful for your reply to this letter.

NOTE: Bufiles contain no information identifiable with correspondent. The book, "The Death of a Nation," by John Stormer follows the lines of Stormer's earlier publication, "None Dare Call It Treason." This latest book tends to exaggerate communist influence, and Stormer is quick to take comments of individuals out of context to promote his own viewpoint.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Federal Bureau Of Investigation

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am a law abiding, patriotic and sincere citizen. I am registered as a democrat and have never missed voting in a general election. My oldest son is a policeman in our city.

Recently I read None Dare Call It Treason. I then read the sequel Death Of A Nation. The author of both of these books is John Stormer. You are undoubtedly familiar with the background of this man. My question is this; exactly how much of his books can I believe?

I have felt for some time that our country was heading toward Socialism and we are having too many laws passed by the Federal Government that should be taken care of by the State and Local Governments.

Many of the decisions passed on by the Supreme Court are detrimental to the way of life that our founding fathers made clear in their Declaration of Independence. As an example, in our Pledge of Allegiance we say, "One Nation, Under God" and yet it is now against the law to have even voluntary prayers in our schools.

I trust you will not infer either that we do or do not have data in our files relating to this book or its author.

It is my belief that communism constitutes a cancerous threat to the freedom of the personal and economic well-being of our citizens. It requires constant vigilance.

In meeting this challenge to our free society, we must dedicate ourselves to doing what is right and denouncing that which is wrong. There can be no compromise in our position on this, and we must accept our responsibility to become involved in situations that we may neither like nor make. The time has long since passed when we can afford to "look the other way" or to "let someone else do it." We cannot expect our neighbor to do our job for us--we must assume the task ourselves. Distinguishing right from wrong, observing the rules of fair play, having respect for the property and rights of others, and being proud of our country and its heritage are certainly fundamental principles to which we must discipline ourselves if we are to reasonably hope America is to withstand the challenges confronting our freedom.

I am enclosing some material which I hope will be of interest to you.

John Edgar Hoover,
% Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Washington, D. C.,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Recently, I finished a book, which disturbed me a great deal. The name of this book is "None Dare Call It Treason", written by John A. Stormer. I have already checked, this cannot be bought at any ordinary book store. A number of copies have been published by Liberty Bell Press, Florissant, Missouri. My understanding is that it is in connection with the John Birch Society.'

This book mentions various happenings and drops political names. If the information in this book is not true, I'm wondering how this author is getting away with not being sued. However; if it is true, I'm wondering just what we can do about this situation. I realize if you are not aware of the existence of same you probably don't know what I'm talking about. The party that gave me this book, asked me to give it to a friend. This I hesitate to do, because of my own feelings. If you wish, I will send it to you.

Would very much appreciate hearing from you as to what your opinion is concerning this.

I do realize that you are quite busy, but if anyone could give me advice, I know that you can.

Thanking you in advance.

Very truly yours,

Dear [Redacted]

On March 5th I received your letter and was glad to know that you are interested in protecting this wonderful country of ours from the threat of communism.

The best way to defeat communism is through information, education and depending on our democratic form of government. The communists thrive on error, falsehood and deceit. In America we believe in truth, freedom of thought and the dignity of the individual. Under communism, every person is a creature of the state, where he is always told what to do.

Enclosed is literature which you may not have had the opportunity to read and, if you are not already familiar with them, you may also wish to refer to my books, "Masters of Deceit," "A Study of Communism" and "J. Edgar Hoover on Communism." Perhaps copies will be in your school or local library.

Mr. Hoover:

I am of age eleven and a sixth grade student. This is not part of a school assignment, but of my own accord.

I hate the communists just as much or more than you. I have started to alert myself as well as others. I read the 1964 publication "None Dare call it Treason." And as you said"... we cannot dawdle at the spring of knowledge..." which has let me put my ladle into the soup.

I am sending you this letter not as fan mail (but I do back you) but to let you know that I am concerned and agitated at the communist move.

I received your letter on March 12th. It is always encouraging to hear from citizens who demonstrate an awareness of the problems facing our country and who desire to prepare themselves to meet the challenge to our freedoms presented by communism. A broad knowledge of the objectives and operations of the communist movement is essential if the American people are to effectively resist its eroding influence.

I am enclosing some material which contains suggestions all of us can use in the fight against communism. You may also want to read my books, "Masters of Deceit," "A Study of Communism" and "J. Edgar Hoover on Communism." They were written to help readers gain an insight into the true nature of communist activities, both in this country and abroad. They may be available at your local library.

Dear Sir:

Recently I read None Dare Call It Treason by John

Because of your long directorship of the F. B. I.,

Mr. John Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D.C. 20535

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am in the process of reading the book "None Dare Call It Treason" by John A. Stormer. As I read, the material becomes more shocking. ~~Never have I read or heard of~~ so many people in our Government who have had direct association with the Communist party.
The amazing thing is that even if the smallest portion of these facts is true, our country is facing a greater menace that has ever been imagined.

Another astonishing fact is that the American public has not been informed of these direct misinterpretations of our Constitution as described in this book. I am sure that if we the citizens of the United States were informed of the growth negligence as represented in this book, we would be ready and willing to come to the aid of our country by placing God fearing men in our Government.

I would like to know if these are truly documented facts as have actually happened in recent years. If this is truly factual information, what can a citizen of the United States do to stop the growth of Communism in our country.

Sincerely yours

Mr. Hoover,

I have just finished reading the book "NONE DARE CALL IT TREASON". May I inquire of you, sir, as to the validity of the book? Is it the TRUTH, communist "SCARE PROPAGANDA", merely the opinions of an "ELATED EXTREMIST", or WHAT?

I am deeply concerned about communist activities in the UNITED STATES of AMERICA. Even if the afore mentioned book is "a BUNCH of BUNK", it is obvious that there exists a very dangerous situation in our nation. I would like very much to join a reputable organization dedicated to fighting communism, and capable of doing so EFFECTIVELY. I have considered the John Birch Society, would you care to comment? I would hold you'r opinion in the highest regard.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and you'r staff for the OUTSTANDING job that has made the F.B.I. a legend in it's own time. A job that has instilled the utmost confidence in every good American. You have my full support, and my deepest gratitude.

Dear Sirs:

I am presently reading a book entitled "None Dare Call It Treason" by John A. Stormer. In this book he brings out many interesting points, which you could possibly clear up for me.

One such case is that of Philip C. Jessup. Mr. Stoner states that Jessup was the head of the Institute of Pacific Relations (IPR), can you tell me exactly what this organization did, and were they communist inspired? Did he block an investigation of IPR, and if so, why? Who is

Why didn't the Tydings'

It seems to me, that a reasonable doubt was established as to the loyalty of Mr. Philip C. Jessup. Why, therefore, was he allowed to hold such an important post, where he could or can use his high rank and influence, to sway decisions the way he wants them?

Also any information that you can give me concerning the position that the Communist United States.

I can tell you, however, that Mr. Stormer did not interview me in connection with the preparation of his book, "None Dare Call It Treason." I hope you will not infer either that we do or do not have data in our files relating to this book or its author.

In view of your interest and assignment to study the topic of communism, you may want to read my books, "Masters of Deceit," "A Study of Communism" and "J. Edgar Hoover on Communism." They may be available in your school or local library.

Sincerely yours,
J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: There is no record of correspondent in Bufiles. John Stormer and his book, "None Dare Call It Treason," are well-known to the Bureau.
